

January Edition

FCCLA Speaks

Hi! Idaho FCCLA I hope you guys have had an amazing start to your New Year, with new goals.

Since it is getting closer to state here are some things you need to know highlighted in this edition:

- STAR Events
- Merch Boxes
- Outreach Programs
- State Leadership Conference

Winter Planning~

At the start of the month, January 2-4, the State Officers from all the Career & Technical Student Organizations went to Boise to finalize plans for state conferences for this year. We made progress as well as had some fun team bonding by going sledding at the end of the week!

January 2020

Merch Box~

We are still selling Merch Boxes to help you show off your FCCLA swag!

STAR Events~

Rylee Bonning VP of Star Events

As some of you may know, now is the time to start planning your STAR Event. By the end of December it would be a good to have your planning process done and start working on your ACT items. We can't wait to see you at State Leadership Conference with all your wonderful projects! If you need help finding a area to compete you can take this quiz to see what competition would be great for you

Some Important updates about STAR Event~

- Culinary and Baking and Pastry menus are now posted on <https://www.idahofccla.org/competitions>
- You can access the Competitive Events Guide in the portal once your chapter is affiliated
- The next Red Report will be coming with information for State Leadership Conference and the State Officer updates

State Leadership conference

Chapter Flags~

Isabella Bishop, First Vice President

Attention all chapters! If you would like to be recognized at this year's State Leadership Conference don't miss out on this opportunity to put your creative juices to work by creating your own cool and unique chapter flags! These flags will be shown across stage at the Opening Ceremony by one of your chapter members! Check out the flag regulations at idahofccla.org under the 'Get Involved' tab. Don't forget to fill out the google form to sign up for the parade! We can't wait to see all of your chapters there!

Service Carnival~

Rilee Moore, Vice President of Programs

This year at state we will be hosting a Service Carnival where we will have lots of fun games! We will be hosting this to help the Boise Angels (one of our outreach partners). The entry fee will be from a list of items that your advisors will be receiving soon. This will be a very fun activity and we are excited to bring it back. If you are a district officer please get in contact with your district advisor and they will have some information for you. If you have any questions feel free to contact me at

State Officer Applications~

Have you had a positive experience with FCCLA and want to be more apart of this organization at a state level? We have our FCCLA State Officer Applications out for the new executive council of 2020-21! To apply is simple we suggest to have simple understanding of FCCLA, and what it is. We also suggest at least competing in STAR Events and/or Idaho events. This is a great opportunity to help grow your leadership experience. The link to the application is: <https://www.idahofccla.org/state-officers> any questions feel free to contact any of the state officers.
