WELCOME FROM IDAHO CAREER & TECHNICAL EDUCATION

Amy Lorenzo

Director of Policy & Organization

Amy Lorenzo serves as the Policy Director for the Idaho Division of Career & Technical Education. In that capacity, Amy develops internal and external policies, drafts legislation, and agency rules, as well as works closely with secondary and postsecondary stakeholders. Prior to ICTE, Amy worked for the Idaho Legislature for eight years, conducting evaluations of state agencies and programs. She has served in the public sector for nearly 20 years, working as an international student advisor, and as a Program Analyst with the Department of Homeland Security. She holds a Master of Public Administration from Louisiana State University and is currently pursuing her PhD in Public Policy and Administration.

OUR KEYNOTE SPEAKER

CD Breshears

CD was born and raised in the Treasure Valley and graduated from Vallivue High School in 1998. He attended Boise State University in 2000 but enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in 2003, where he served as an Infantry Squad Leader until 2007. After serving his country, CD returned to Boise State and earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and Human Resource Management in 2011, while also serving in the Idaho Air National Guard.

In 2013, CD continued his career of service by recruiting for the Idaho Air National Guard for two years before becoming the High School Admissions Consultant with Stevens-Henager College in 2015. Also in 2015, CD started two distinctly different businesses, leveraging the talent and experience of his wife, Ashley as Operations Director. He recently completed his Master's Degree in Entrepreneur with Independence University. In late 2016, CD was offered an amazing position with the State of Idaho, Department of Education to run a federal grant called GEAR UP. GEAR UP gave CD the opportunity to see the public side of Idaho's education system and he was able to collaborate with all Idaho colleges and universities. After a year and a half with the state, CD was given the opportunity to return to Stevens-Henager in a role that allowed him to work as an agent of the state, and aligning Stevens-Henager's private education to the governor's 60% college completion goal.

CD is passionate about helping Idaho teens find their own passions and link it to career paths, from volunteering with the Idaho Youth Challenge Academy, to networking with programs like Life's Kitchen, RISE (Treasure Valley's Educational Partnership) and the Educate Idaho Network. His dream is to increase Idaho's college graduation rates by educating teens, teachers and counselors on the advantages of Career and Technical Education and individualized career advocacy.

ADVISER / CHAPERONE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Advisers and chaperones are responsible for the behavior of their students throughout the conference.
- Advisers are responsible for enforcing the Idaho SLC dress code.
- Advisers are responsible for enforcing the 11:00 p.m. student curfew.

Delegates are expected to attend and participate in all meeting sessions. All conference attendees should be informed of the following:

- Please be on time for all sessions and remain until sessions are adjourned.
- Wristbands for the FCCLA Banquet must be worn to this event without exception.

- Be considerate of sleeping hours and the privacy of other hotel guests and FCCLA members. All students will observe an 11:00 p.m. curfew.
- Any accidents, injuries, or illnesses should be reported to the adult chaperone or adviser immediately. State staff should be informed of such incidents.

TRAVEL SAFETY TIPS

- When going outside the hotel never travel alone and always walk in public, well-lit areas.
- Use your common sense about safety and always let your adviser know where you are going. Keep the cell phone numbers of your advisers and friends handy, in case you need to reach each other quickly.

- Avoid being out after dark unless you are with an adult chaperone.
- Do not give money to strangers.
- Remove name badges when outside the hotel and conference facility.
- Never give your hotel room number to anyone you do not know.
- Bolt your hotel room door. Only open it when you know who is on the other side.
- Note: All hotel personnel wear uniforms and have an identification badge. If in doubt, call the hotel security to come and verify the employee's identity.
- Know where the stairs are located in case of a fire. Count the number of doors to the nearest exit in case you can't see in a smoke filled hallway. Do not use the elevators.

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF...

- ... I lost my room key? A new room key can be issued at the front desk. Be sure to bring your identification, like a driver's license or other photo ID.
- ... the fire alarm goes off? If the fire alarm goes off, and you are in your sleeping room, you should refer to the emergency map on the back of your door for the nearest exit. Please check the door for heat before opening. You may want to designate a particular area outside the hotel for your chapter/group to meet. If there are any attendees that need special assistance, please compile a list for the front desk so they can help.

... I need to call security? Simply dial "0" and the hotel operator will connect you.

... my wallet or other valuables are missing? Report missing items to security by dialing "0". You should also let your adviser know. In addition, you may want to check in at the FCCLA Registration Desk.

... I don't feel well? First, contact your adviser. If there is a real emergency, dial "0" for assistance.

Fix It! 7-12 We think about all of the bad things that happen to us and around us—sometimes even being blinded to the good things—and often feeling powerless and fearful. VIOLENCE - ADDICTIONS - BULLYING - FAMILY PROBLEMS - FAILURE IN SCHOOL While there are many problems that can't easily be fixed, there are three realities that can help us overcome our fears as we face these challenges. Often, we can fix it! We can always try to help fix it! We will usually make it better by trying to fix it! Letting fear dominate our thinking only makes things worse. If we don't let fear paralyze us we can do a lot more than we might think... A teenage girl lifts a 7000 pound truck to rescue her dad! A thirteen-year-old rescues seventeen people on an air mattress during Hurricane Harvey! Teens mow lawns for free to help those who can't do it themselves! A man reveals his plan to do violence as a teenager, and how his friend's kindness stopped him! A survivor of extreme bullying creates an app that helps kids stay connected and never alone! These and other stories are woven together with music and sports action on three giant screens to create a fun and inspirational message of empowerment!

Here and Now You hear it over and over again: "You are the future", or, "Think about your future!" Those are extremely important things to keep in mind, but we are living in the present, and the best thing we can do for our future is to step up and take on challenges that we share here and now.

Students will be challenged by:

Jacy Good, who struggles with disabilities after losing lost her parents at the hands of a distracted driver who hit them all on the day of her graduation. Ryan Warneke, who chooses to be an inspiring warrior against cystic fibrosis rather than a passive victim. Amy Walker, who as a child was told she would never walk and is deaf and blind in one eye, yet became a gymnast on the number one team in the NCAA. Young basketball players who stop play to take a stand against bullying by an opposing fan who is mocking a very special cheerleader. Music, sports and movie clips are woven together with these and other stories to inform and inspire, delivering a high impact experience!

RED Jacket Project—Recycle, Engage, Deliver

Idaho FCCLA has launched the RED Jacket Project campaign.
Assisting members by helping chapters build
RED Jacket (FCCLA Red Blazer) closets.

We need alumni, partners, and supporters to help us prepare for:

2018 Red Blazer dress code requirements for NLC

2021 Red Blazer dress code requirements for SLC

What is the RED Jacket Project?

R = Recycle alumni FCCLA red blazers

- Past state officers have been contacted and four have donated Red Blazers to date.
- Idaho FCCLA will have Red Blazer to rent to members in the future

E = Engage our partners for support

- Idaho FCCLA is actively looking for sponsors to support the state association RED Jacket closet.

D = Deliver FCCLA red blazers to our members

- Idaho FCCLA will make available to chapters attending 2018 NLC three Red Blazers at the cost of $35.00 each. (See Below)

An adviser and alumni RED Jacket Project committee was created summer of 2017 to determine a “best practice” to support Idaho FCCLA chapters. During our discussion time, national FCCLA announced state level grants to support the transition to Red Blazers for all members. Idaho will receive funds representing our three-year average NLC (National Leadership Conference) attendance. Idaho FCCLA will be using these funds as seed money to deliver Red Blazers to our chapters. As a result, the state association will support 50% of the cost of a Red Blazer for members attending 2019 NLC. Up to three Red Blazers at $35.00 each may be purchased through Idaho FCCLA. We will continue the support the RED Jacket Project over the three-year grant window or until our grant money expires.

The first wave of Red Blazers will be available to members attending 2019 NLC (Order forms will be available at NLC. STAR Event competitors continuing to NLC will receive priority status).

RAFFLE

Idaho FCCLA will be raffling off TWO Scentsy Buddies – Mickey & Minnie.

Tickets are $1.00. For every 5 raffle tickets purchased, a separate ticket will be placed in the NLC early bird registration raffle.

Money collected from the Mickey/ Minnie raffle will build the NLC registration raffle fund.

How fun! If every participant purchases 2 tickets, we can give away FIVE NLC conference registration to student members attending NLC.
